Metal Medic 7202 Vanishing Oil

INCREASING PROFITABILITY THROUGH SOLUTIONS-DRIVEN CHEMICAL TECHNOLOGY

Description:

Metal Medic 7202 is a clear, yellow liquid designed as a vanishing oil that leaves no residue during use. Its unique formulation ensures that it evaporates completely, making it ideal for applications where a clean, residue-free surface is essential. Metal Medic 7202 offers efficient rust protection and lubrication during processing, while its vanishing properties prevent the need for additional cleaning or residue removal, streamlining post-process handling.

Applications:

Metal Medic 7202 is used to clean gauge block and other surfaces to remove soils and leave a dry surface. Metal Medic 7202 may be used in many wipe applications to remove grease and oil residues.

Note: Always use JEL's Machine Klean XL for a fast and thorough pre-cleaning to your machine tool and coolant systems.
